MESSAGE FROM MADAM PAULINE

Even though the announcement that the UK is to be opening up on the 19th July, there will still be some restrictions so the advice that I have had is that international travel will still be challenging.

Also several countries will still not be able to travel to the UK, this means that many people will not be able to attend. Lois and Carol have advised me it will not be possible to arrange the tour, that was to run alongside the Gathering, for this year.

My decision is that we hold our full International Gathering in 2022.

Our Clan Hunter International Gathering will be over the weekend of the 2nd to 4th September 2022. I am so looking forward to welcoming you finally to your Clan home, Hunterston Castle. The tour that was being arranged by Carol Hunter Sullivan and Lois Wallace is to be transferred to next year with their original programme.

However, if you have already made plans and booked your flights, I will be holding a smaller Gathering at Hunterston Castle with almost the same programme. The only real change will be our Dinner venue. I will be able to confirm the venue is the Rowan Tree Restaurant and we will have the piper join us. The Rowan Tree are our official caterers, their Restaurant is a great venue with uninterrupted views of Arran and the Ayrshire Coast.

If you cannot come to Hunterston this year, let us bring Hunterston to you!

We are pleased to announce that plans are underway to produce a wonderful Virtual Clan Hunter Gathering online for Sunday 12th September. I will be emailing the details next month so if you wish to get all the information about our first Clan Hunter online event please sign up on our website.

<https://www.clanhutscotland.com>

Check on the Clan Hunter website and Facebook page to find out how to watch.

Please rest assured that you will all always be welcome to visit Hunterston Castle.

Yours aye,

Madam Pauline
Clan Chief of Clan Hunter

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT BRYAN HUNTER

Dear Fellow Clansfolk,

Greetings after what we all must agree has been the most trying, unpredictable year we have collectively experienced as a clan. I hope that now the worst is behind us and life resumes some degree of normalcy that you are all doing well.

As a clan, the most challenging aspect of the past year has been our inability to gather in person as we had all hoped and planned. For those who were planning to attend last year's General Gathering at Hunterston and then this year when 2020 was postponed, I share your further disappointment that we must patiently wait until 2022. But I also share your anticipation.

Despite our inability to gather in person, there has been a silver lining. I hope that you, like me, have found that we are more connected than ever, thanks to the miracle of modern technology. The regular Zooms our Clan Chief has organized have allowed us to get to know each other in ways that would be impossible via traditional methods. Similarly, the paradigm shift brought about by technology that allows us to connect in truly meaningful and productive ways will allow our international gathering to go forward, albeit in a virtual manner.

Similarly, the Clan leadership from across the globe, including yours truly, have met monthly via Zoom to discuss the future of Hunterston Castle and its relationship to each of us – something we all feel is indispensable to our identity as members of Clan Hunter. Our Clan Chief, the presidents from the different international Clan Hunter societies, and other senior members within Madam Pauline's family, have been working diligently to place our ancient stronghold into a charitable trust to ensure it is protected, properly maintained and – vitally important – accessible to Clan Hunter members in perpetuity. Happily, we have made great strides in that long process, and, I feel confident predicting, is very near finalization. So, adding further anticipation: more to come very soon on that.

One further note: a confluence of factors has led to a renewed interest in family history aided and propelled by enhanced genetic testing. As a result, our U.S. association has witnessed remarkable growth over the past year. Please join me in extending a hearty welcome to our new members.

Yours aye,

Bryan Hunter
President, Clan Hunter USA

GRANDFATHER MOUNTAIN HIGHLAND GAMES

The 65th Anniversary Grandfather Mountain Highland Games was a long time coming after being cancelled in 2020 for the first time ever since its inception due to the Covid -19 shutdown across America. Blustery winds and cloudy skies prevailed over the Gathering from July 8-11, 2021. Located in the beautiful western North Carolina mountains just north of Linville, the long weekend boasts tartans, Celtic cuisine, crafts and rich culture of the traditions of Scotland and consistently draw between 20,000 and 30,000 people. This year, the crowds seemed even larger – a great time for friends and family to enjoy themselves outside once again. Hosting the Clan Hunter tent at MacRae Meadows this year for the 4-day event included John and Carol Hunter from Pacific, Missouri, and Greg and Margaret Slaton of Atlanta, Georgia. A special thanks to all who helped greet members and guests over the weekend at the Clan Hunter tent.

The Highland games began the evening of Thursday, July 8th, with children's activities, sheep dog demonstrations and Celtic entertainment. Each year, the weekend activities kick off with the traditional, grueling, 5-mile, all-uphill footrace called The Running of the Bear. Mile for mile, "The Bear" is as tough as any road race in America, and even so, twice as many racers were expected to compete this year. As the race ended, the opening ceremonies began with the Torchlight Ceremony. This ceremony is where representatives of all participating Clans are invited to announce their family's participation in the gathering for this year. For the third consecutive showing, Clan Hunter was announced and represented at the Calling of the Clans by our tent host, John Hunter.

Gusty, mountain winds (courtesy of Hurricane Elsa) visited the Mountain early Friday morning during the setup of the Hunter Tent. Just as the Tent went up, the gusty wind pulled it back down, flipping it end-over-end and breaking the 3-way corner pipe fittings holding the adjoining tents together. With the help of some neighboring Clans and a wonderful Highland Games work crew, the Hunter Tent was back up in no time!

The Honored Guest for the 2021 Grandfather Mountain Highland Games was 18-year-old Clan Chief Alasdair Morrison, Morrison of Ruchdi, following the untimely death of his father, Dr. J. Ruairaidh Morrison last November. Alasdair is the youngest chief eligible to serve on the Standing Council of Scottish Chiefs.

Greg Slaton with Clan Chief Alasdair Morrison, Morrison of Ruchdi

The Friday Night Celtic Rock Concert featured the headliner band, Seven Nations. Although some of the concerts over the weekend were cut short due to weather, other performers throughout the weekend's daytime musical offerings included Brothers McLeod, Chambless & Muse, Ed Miller, Emerald Ray, Jennifer Licko, Jiggernaut, Marybeth McQueen, the Piper Jones Band, The Reel Sisters, StrathSpan, Tune Shepherds, Will MacMorran and Wolf Loescher.

The weekend winded down on Sunday with the traditional Parade of the Tartans. This parade around MacRae Meadows introduces Guests of Honor as all members of the sponsoring clans are invited to march behind with the massed pipe bands. This year, parade marchers for Clan Hunter included members John Hunter, Carol Hunter, Holley Crowder and Greg Slaton. Visiting and also marching was prospective member Laura Knapp. Thank you to everyone, and we are already looking forward to next year's games in North Carolina set for July 7 – July 10, 2022.

MY STORY OF HOW TITUS HUNTER BECAME A RECOGNIZED PATRIOT OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR BY DAR

“The Daughters of the American Revolution is an organization with a deeply rich history while also being truly relevant in today's world. More than 1,000,000 women have joined the organization since it was founded over 125 years ago. They became members to honor their heritage as well as make a difference in their communities across the country and the world.”

My personal interest in genealogy started around 1957. When as a small girl I would rummage through my great grandmother's cedar chest. (Mary Pearle Gray) It was magical to explore the papers and keepsakes that she had collected in her lifetime. I also loved to look at the pictures in the family Bible. In the center of the Bible was several family history pages written by Mary's father. (Eli Dorsey Gray)

Little did I know how important that Bible would be 64 years later during the process applying for membership in the DAR using Mary's 2nd great grandfather Titus Hunter.

My father (Roy Henry Drake Sr.) also loved genealogy and when I became an adult we visited many graveyards and old homestead to trace our family history. When Mary Pearle Gray died, my father's siblings were not that interested in her family collection. Many of the pictures and documents went to my father including the family Bible.

In the 1970's I was married and had three little girls but I always found time to do genealogy. In those days it meant ordering microfilm and spending hours at the library. I also made several trips to Monroe County Indiana to visit the historical society and even a 93 year old relative. This kind man let me make copies of his pictures and documents and told me many great family stories.

The Monroe County Historical Society had extensive documents of the Sullivan family. In one 43 page family history I read about Titus Hunter for the first time. Titus was born in 1756 in Louisa County, Virginia, USA and died in 1814 in Green County, Kentucky, USA. In the 43 page family history there is an extensive story of his escapades in the Revolutionary War. In one such escapade, several guards had disappeared from their post and were never found. Titus volunteered to take the watch that evening and said he was going to shoot anything that moved. In the process he killed a pig that was foraging near him. As it turned out, that pig was the enemy inside of a pig carcass who had been killing the guards and carrying them away. This story is written in a children's schoolbook which I have been lucky enough to find and buy.

Titus Hunter was the father of Sarah Ann Hunter (born 1794 in Virginia, died 12 August 1847 in Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana, USA). Sarah married James Spencer Sullivan 13 May 1819, in Greensburg, Green County, Kentucky, USA. This union was the beginning of the Hunters in my line.

In 2017 I posted a story on my Facebook page about another patriot in my line, Robert Gray. After reading that, a friend of mine, contacted me and asked if I had ever considered applying for membership to the DAR. She then introduced me to the registrar from her chapter. We began the process of finding the necessary documents connecting myself with the chosen patriot. After trying for several months to get all the necessary documents together for Robert Gray I became discouraged and put my application aside.

In October of 2020 my husband and I took a second trip to Monroe County Indiana and found obscure family cemeteries and even more documents. I was encouraged about completing my DAR application, so I called my local DAR chapter and restarted the process. I was put in touch with my local registrar, Margaret Sopp, who turned out to be a godsend. She was patient and diligent and nationally recognized as a genealogist. We tried a total of six possible patriots before we were finally able to find most of the documents required. We just kept coming up one short of what was needed. The ideal way to proceed is to find a patriot that has already been approved by the DAR because then it isn't necessary to prove his military record in addition to all the other requirements. Using Titus Hunter as the patriot for DAR membership was not my first choice because he had never been proven a patriot.

Just as I was about to give up, Margaret called in another DAR member to help us out. Her name was Sandi Gibertini. She was able to find the documents to prove that Titus Hunter was a patriot. Margaret contacted me and asked if I had any family documents for the Sullivan Hunter line. Suddenly, all those documents that I had been collecting for so many years saved the day. I was able to email them marriage certificates, land deeds, wills, and everything else that we needed, including pages from the family Bible. Just as we were seeing the light at the end of the tunnel, Margaret said that we must also prove that the Titus Hunter who fought under Captain Tucker in Virginia was the same Titus Hunter who died in Green County Kentucky.

That task seemed impossible, but I decided to look through all of my notebooks on the Sullivan and Hunter families to see if I could find anything. What I found was one loose paper in the bottom of a bin that had never been filed. I did not think it would ever be of any significance. The paper was a write-up on Titus's grandson, Titus Hunter I, who lived in Iowa. The article mentioned that Titus Hunter I, had a grandfather who was born in Virginia and died in Kentucky. That was the last piece of the puzzle.

Margaret submitted my application on March 15, 2021. On April 8 I got an email saying that the application had been verified by DAR. It was such a wonderful feeling to know that now Titus Hunter would be officially recognized as a patriot and that many more people could join DAR using my application as a starting point. All that research will never have to be repeated.

When I got the good news I so happy that I was telling everyone I knew. I put a post on the Hunter Genealogy Facebook page and Charles Hunterston suggested that I submit my story for possible use in the newsletter. I should have warned him that I do not know how to tell a short story, I think it is the Scottish heritage. By Darlene Varney

Clan Hunter Tartan

The Clan Hunter tartan was designed in 1983 by Capt. T. Stuart Davidson, the founder of the Scottish Tartan Society. The design or Sett as it is known, has been named Hunter of Hunterston to distinguish it from other Hunter tartans such as:

- Hunter Russell Mitchell Galbraith sett – A tartan shared between the four families.
- Hunters of Bute sett - Hunters who sought allegiance from the Stuarts at one time.
- Hunters of Peeblesshire sett - An old branch of the Hunter family.

The design for our Clan tartan was carefully chosen to incorporate a green hunting base with blue representing the proximity of Hunterston to the sea. The narrow gold (yellow) stripes to signify the Chief's appointment as Royal Huntsman and red is taken from the lanyards of the hunting horns in the Chief's coat of arms.

The regular check pattern of a tartan is created by a repeat of the design or sett in both warp and weft in the loom. The dye range selected was considered closest to the natural vegetable dyes of old. Variations in appearance and colour do occur between individual mill producers and different weights of cloth. Clan Hunter uses a variety of cloths for different purposes. Most of the wool utilised today is Merino from Australia. All of our cloths and tartan products are manufactured in Scotland.

A Clan Chief may change a Clan tartan or add to an existing. It is up to an individual Clan member which tartan they choose but we hope you find our Clan tartan design pleasing and join us and take pride in wearing it.

ALEXANDRIA SCOTTISH CHRISTMAS WALK

There was no formal Alexandria Scottish Christmas Walk this past December because of the pandemic. However, the Saint Andrew's Society of Washington held an informal walk through Old Town Alexandria and ended up at the Old Presbyterian Meeting House to pay respects to Thomas Hunter at his gravesite on the evening of November 30, 2020. It was there that the President of the Saint Andrew's Society read the letters from William Hunter and Thomas Jefferson. Text of letters are as follows.

Address of Welcome from the Mayor of Alexandria to Thomas Jefferson

Alexandria the March 1790

Sir

You have returned to your native Country. Permit us the inhabitants of Alexandria to join with the rest of our fellow citizens in the warmest congratulations to you on that happy event. As a commercial town, we feel ourselves particularly indebted to you for the indulgencies which your enlightened representations to the Court of France have secured to our trade. You have freed commerce from its shackles, and destroyed the first essay made in this Country towards establishing a Monopoly. But we assure you that these events, though more recent, are not more deeply impressed on our minds, than the whole tenor of your conduct when we were struggling in the sacred cause of freedom. A sense of the benefits we have already derived from your talents and virtue, in the various offices you have filled, induces us to entertain the most auspicious hopes from your arrival at this crisis; when a constitution newly adopted, and which is to decide the fate of republican forms of Government, is commencing its operations; and when subjects of the highest importance to the Union must necessarily be discussed. That you, Sir, in every walk of life may meet with the reward of your meritorious services and fulfill the high expectations of a free and republican people is our sincere wish.

In behalf of the Citizens of Alexandria Will. Hunter, Jr. Mayor

Response to the Address of Welcome From Thomas Jefferson

Alexandria. Mar. 11. 1790.

Sir

Accept my sincere thanks for yourself and the worthy citizens of Alexandria, for their kind congratulations on my return to my native country. I am happy to learn that they have felt benefit from the encouragements to our commerce which have been given by an allied nation. But truth and candor oblige me at the same time to declare you are indebted for those encouragements solely to the friendly dispositions of that nation which has shown itself ready on every occasion to adopt all arrangements which might strengthen our ties of mutual interest and friendship.

Convinced that the republican is the only form of government which is not eternally at open or secret war with the rights of mankind, my prayers and efforts shall be cordially contributed to the support of that we have so happily established. It is indeed an animating thought that, while we are securing the rights of ourselves and our posterity, we are pointing out the way to struggling nations who wish, like us, to emerge from their tyrannies also. Heaven help their struggles, and lead them, as it has done us, triumphantly thro' them.

Accept, Sir, for yourself and the citizens of Alexandria the homage of my thanks for their civilities, & the assurance of those sentiments of respect & attachment with which I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient and most humble servt.,

Th: Jefferson

FUTURE CLAN MEMBERS

A picture of our new grandson named Hunter (right corner). There are 4 people named Hunter either 1st or as middle name in my immediate family, here is a picture with 2 of them. All from my Grandmother Hester Hunter. My name Anne (Hunter is middle name) but I went by both names together. A son of ours Robert Hunter and grandson William Hunter and new grandson, Hunter. So the name Hunter is in all 4 families.

We are all so proud of the Hunter name, and our 4 families connection with Clan Hunter.

Thank you, "Anne Hunter" Lawler O'Connell
